Making Quality Make Sense

Monitoring day-to-day quality is an important part of business operations for component manufacturers (CMs). In line with the initial goal, the SBCA In-Plant Wood Truss QC Program continues to provide CMs with an easy-to-use program that is a data-driven management information system. SBCA representatives Ryan Dexter, Jay Edgar and Joe Schauer will be giving an update on the new web-based QC program with topics including:

- QC Standard Requirements
- Inspection Procedures
- Overview of the OQ Program

Workshop Schedule – This 1¼ hour workshop will be held on Tuesday, September 22 at 11am PDT/12pm MDT/1pm CDT/2pm EDT. Truss Technician Training (TTT) recertification credit, continuing education credit (CEU) and professional development hours (PDH) are available.

Workshop Cost – This workshop is complimentary to all SBCA members; the nonmember cost is $60 per person. For more information, visit: <http://sbcindustry.com/workshop>

Missed a Workshop? – Recordings of this workshop will be available online shortly after the presentation. This workshop is complimentary to all SBCA members; the nonmember cost is $60 per person.
